As the youth Union, we have committed ourselves to initiating transformative changes across all dimensions of youth life—spiritually, mentally, and physically. Our church has dedicated itself to guiding us along the path of implementing developmental projects designed and reflecting to GAHINI -vision to enhance the livelihoods of young people through evangelism, awareness-raising, and acts of charity, all of which unite us in building a stronger community

To advance these goals, our Diocese has chosen to support us in realizing projects in six archdeaconries will be implemented by branches at the same that promote youth development. Through these initiatives, we aim to empower the youth in evangelism, education, and acts of love that build a stronger, united community.

BUDGET ESTIMATION OF THE PROJECY PER ARCHDICONRY

Selected project is a great project that yields profits in a short time and can thrive with a small initial investment. With the progress we have already made, we found that five million (5) for each archdiconaries would help us sustain this project, allowing us to achieve our main goals of advancing evangelism, unity, and entrepreneurship.

No	Activity per Archdeaconary	Budget cost
1	KARANGAZI (Maize farming)	$5000
2	RUKOMO (Pig's Farming)	$5000
